Officials Meet About New Board Of Health Member

Health board members Dr. Roger Pompeo and Marilyn Sweeney met with Selectmen last week to discuss the appointment of a new health board member. Agreement on the appointment was not made, but a special Selectmen's meeting will be held this week to interview all candidates.

Five applicants — Charlotte Leland, Elizabeth Van Slyck, John Ridge, Lynne Buckley, Pamela Johnson — have applied for the nine month vacancy.

Health board Chairman Pompeo explained that rigorous enforcement of Title V, which has hit Cohasset particularly hard, has made a board seat a time-consuming job. "Title V is restrictive. We spend two to 10 hours reviewing plans. All easily pliable land in Cohasset is used up. We're down to half acre lots, in land with a lot of ledge," he said.

He said that a majority of plans that come to his board for installation of septic systems require variances. "Most plans do not meet Title V," he said.

"Other areas are being hurt," Pompeo continued, "because the Health Agent doesn't have time to carry out other inspections."

Time and work constraints, he said, have led the board to believe that an applicant who is in Cohasset daily would be an advantage. Sweeney said that her part-time secretarial job in the Sewer Department helps her in her health duties, because it introduces her to the town's issues.

"We need a person with time and we need help as quickly as possible. Any candidate would be suitable to me," she said.

Check the Mariner Service Directory and maybe we can help solve the problem!

AUDOBON AUCTION

Selectmen approved the auctioning of first edition Audobon books in New York, as they weren't being used at the Cohasset Public Library, nor were they properly housed.

CZM CONSULTANT

Selectmen voted unanimously to name Anderson-Nichols Corporation as the consultant for a Coastal Zone Management (CZM) grant to study the harbor. The selectmen will be the grantee for the $17,950 grant but will delegate authority to the Study Committee.

MANAGEMENT CHANGED

A change in management of Hugo's Lighthouse Restaurant and Kimball's By the Sea has been made to Theodore Vallas from the late John Carzas.

AUXILIARY APPOINTED

Bruce Collins of Cohasset has been appointed to the Auxiliary Police force. Collins will be joining seven Auxiliary Officers already serving the Police Department.

RESIGNATION

Selectmen accepted with regret the resignation of Francis Johnston from the Fire Station Study Committee.

CONTRIBUTION

Recreation Department Director Jack Worley recently received a $100 contribution from parents for arts and crafts materials used in summer playground activities.

CIVIL SERVICE LIST

Selectmen will request a list of six additional permanent intermittent police be handed down from Civil Service.

BEACH TRAFFIC

Due to concern about a sand dune that blocks driving vision when exiting from the parking lot at Sandy Beach, Selectmen approved the reversal of traffic in the lot. Beach visitors will now use the exit that had been used in the past.

SPECIAL TM

Selectmen decided that the police and fire associations can petition to have a Special Town Meeting, for a more immediate vote on their contracts. A petition for the meeting requires 200 voters signatures.

Thanks From Camp Harmony

To the Editor:

I am writing on behalf of the staff and members of Camp Harmony Hill to express our deepest gratitude for your concern and support of our organization. We thought the coverage was thorough, and also beneficial towards our future existence.

You provided us an added incentive to live up to our expectations, and we plan to do just that.

Furthermore, the campers developed a greater sense of unity and pride as a result of your article.

Upstairs

UPS AND DOWNS at Town Hall found Dr. Pompeo trying to concentrate during Selectmen's meeting, but probably toe tapping to music from below where young citizens enjoyed a dancing session under the heads of the meeting, above.
